The License Granted is subject to the provisions of this Agreement; for the single website domain it was originally built for and the Client may not offer the CMS system, apps, or template theme/s for resale.

In the case of paid-for websites the Agency, does allow for transfer of website files to another suppliers hosting solution upon termination of our contract, but any plugin's, widgets, themes, software, application and any add-ons including the website CMS, may require re-installing, re-registering and additional third-party payment for Paid-for applications, which were previously licenced to the Agency for your use on the Agency's own hosting solution. Agency costs for transfer of any files and administration shall be charged at our normal hourly rate and invoiced and paid by the Client in advance.

9.6.2 All images, software or code and data bought outright by us on your behalf with copyright included (subject to the originators Third-Party copyright terms and agreed usage rights), or supplied by you, remain your property at all times.

size variation.

9.6.4 Occasionally some functionality can be affected by changes and upgrades to third-party; mobile technology, software apps and Content Management System, which is out of our control. Where possible and within our control, we will always endeavour to put this right and our developers are constantly upgrading templates and apps, but sometimes it can take a little time to source and then fix the issue and we cannot always guarantee how long this may take. Some developer support for apps and templates may be chargeable, except if a bug is found on the website, application or operating code.

9.6.5 We offer a FREE online video tutorials to learn how to edit your website. There is also FREE email technical support during normal UK office hours (9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday) and we aim to respond within 24 hours. However, we will always try and assist the Client if you are having difficulty understanding, or struggling to edit something.

9.6.6 Annual hosting and any associated subscription costs are fixed for a 12 month periods, but renewal cost may be subject to change due to increases in our hosting suppliers fees. Wherever possible we will try to give you notice of any changes prior to your renewal date, but this is not always possible.

9.6.7 The Client should ensure that files, images and digital data uploaded should be of a reasonable size compatible with hosting and website usage and individual image files should be compressed using image compression software, like PhotoShop, otherwise large image files may negatively affect the speed, performance and SEO ranking for the relevant website page. We may ask you to optimise your images and files if we think they are too large, or may offer to do this for you for an additional charge.

9.6.8 Additional plugins are charged to you at the cost price to us, plus any; set-up, maintenance and admin fees (where applicable) at our normal hourly rate, and any currency exchange banking fees charged to us. Occasionally some more complicated issues may take longer than expected to put right, although you can be reassured that we will be working hard to come up with a solution quickly and we will otherwise keep you informed. Due to some time differences for plugin developers working overseas, there may be a little delay in responding to queries.

10. Liability

We do this because we believe in only charging for the work WE ACTUALLY DO and not for the work others do. We think that is a that's a more ethical way to do business and this way, we can ensure that you won't have a reason to add your own additional plugins which may conflict or break the website.

For this reason the Agency does NOT allow the Client or Subscribers to add Plugins, widgets, software or code without the Agency's written permission and will be considered as a misuse of our services and a breach of Terms of business. Should you the Client, anyone authorised by you the Client/Subscriber, or anyone logging in using any Client/Subscriber login details add your own plugins, widgets, software applications or code, you do so at your own risk and ANY additional costs and time created to fix any issues as a result, will be chargeable to the Client.
